

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 7. 1707.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Oct. 28.

Naples, October 4.

THE 30th of last Month at Night an Express brought Advice of the taking of Gaeta by Assault. Which at first appear'd incredible, the rather because the Imperialists employ'd in the Siege of that Place were no more than 3500 Men. To Day General Count Taun arriv'd here with the principal Prisoners taken in that City viz. The Duke d' Escalona, the Duke of Bisaccia, and the Prince of Cetamarre: The first of which was on Horseback, in a very ordinary Habit, with his Beard grown long, and without Pistols or Sword; The other two were in a Coach; and the Domesticks of all three follow'd. 450 Horse march'd before them, 25 on each side of them, and 350 behind. Thus they were conducted to the Square of St. Dominick; and being expos'd there for some time to the View of the Publick, who throng'd thither in great Numbers, General Count Taun who went into the Palace of the Duke of Limatolla with many of the Nobles and General Officers, call'd out from the Window to their Guard to carry them to the Castle of St. Elmo. Being come thither, the Duke d' Escalona alighted from his Horse, but was so extremely cast down with his Disgrace, that he could hardly ascend the Steps of the Castle. These Prisoners had all besought Count Taun, that they might be brought in thither in the Night privately in a close Chaise; but that was refus'd, to shew the Publick the Falshood of a Report spread by the Partisans of France, that the Duke of Escalona had sold Gaeta to the Imperialists. 'Tis said, that among his Papers were found some Letters of very great Consequence. The Joy shewn by the Inhabitants of this Capital for the taking of Gaeta, is inexpressible; and at the sight of the foremention'd Prisoners, the crowded Streets rang with Acclamations of long live Charles III.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 1.

Milan, Oct. 18. They write from Naples, That the D. d' Escalona, being carry'd Prisoner through that Capital in open Day the 4th Instant, to be confin'd in the Castle of St. Elmo, was extremely mortify'd at the Reproaches and Invectives cast on him by the Populace, who even cry'd out, 'That he deserv'd to be burnt by the Common Executioner, as a Punishment for his Insolence in causing some Months before the Manifesto of their lawful Sovereign King Charles to be burnt by his Hands.'

From the Brussels Gaz. Nov. 1. and Leid. Gaz. Nov. 4.

Naples, Oct. 11. The whole Number of Prisoners taken in Gaeta is 2700, among them are the Duke d' Escalona late Viceroy of this Kingdom, the Duke of Bisaccia Major General, the Prince of Cetamarre, Signior Coppola General of the Artillery, Don Caro Gouvernour of the Place, Councillor Don Gonfalo Machado, Signior Pardo Auditor-general of the Army, and many Officers. General Vaubonne was wounded in the taking of Gaeta, as was also Count Zierotin, Count Stubenbach, Baron Chipel, 3 Captains, 3 Lieutenants, 5 Cornets or Ensigns, and 310 Subaltern Officers and Soldiers. 1 Major General, 2 Captains, 1 Lieutenant, 1 Cornet, 1 Ensign, and 104 Subalterns and Soldiers were kill'd. Of the Enemy 500 Men were kill'd or wounded. 2 large Privateers of Zealand are arriv'd here from Leghorne, and our Viceroy has engag'd them for 10000 Ducats a Month and the Half of the Prizes they shall take, to cruise in the Canal of Messina with our arm'd Barks and Tartans, to secure our Commerce with Apulia. Since the Acquisition of Gaeta, the Price of all Sorts of Provisions is considerably fallen here.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated Nov. 8.

Naples, Oct. 11. The Duke d' Escalona carries himself with admirable Constancy of Mind in his Disgrace; as do also the other Officers taken Prisoners in Gaeta, whence were brought Yesterday the Regent Guerrero and the other Ministers that follow'd the said Duke thither. Several Officers, and most of the Soldiers of the Garrison have taken Service in the Imperial Troops. The City of Gaeta, which was very wealthy of it self, and made more so by a great quantity of rich Goods and Effects which several Persons had sent in thither for Security, is reduc'd to a miserable Condition, being intirely plunder'd and sack'd by the Troops; several Barks are come from thence with Booty, which is sold at a cheap Rate. General C. Thaun has left there the Regiments of Geschwind and of young Thaun, to keep Garrison; has order'd that of Walis to Capua, and sent for those of Wetzel and Heneli to Garrison our Castles. New Regiments are raising in this Kingdom.

From the Leid. Gaz. and Harl. Cour. Nov. 8. &amp; 12.

Vienna, Oct. 29. Count Zobor is restor'd to his former Offices and Dignities. Count Thierheim who came thither from the Elector of Hanover, is sent back with 80000 Florins for the Use of the Army of the Empire: And his Imperial Majesty has by Letters exhorted all the Princes and States of the Empire to follow his Example in furnishing like Subsidies. The Ministers of Hesse Casel have by a Memorial represented to his Imperial Majesty, that the Campaign being ended in Piemont, the Landgrave their Master had resolv'd to call home his Troops that serv'd on that side; and desir'd Orders might be given for their commodious Passage through Tirol, remonstrating the Impossibility of their being well accommodated in their March thro' the Country of the Grisons. The Noblemen that were nominated by the Emperor, for Commissioners to redress the Affairs of Religion in Silesia according to the Treaty made with the King of Sweden, have desir'd twice to be excused; but they are refus'd, and commanded forthwith to act in that Commission. In a great Council held the 20th Instant, it was resolv'd to make good all Articles of the Treaty between the Emperor and the Duke of Savoy, that remain to be satisfy'd.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 1.

Berlin, Oct. 22. The last Advices from Silesia import, that the Roman Catholick Clergy refuse to have Regard to the Treaty made between the Emperor and the King of Sweden; alledging that the Pope alone has Power to direct in Ecclesiastical Affairs; and they have sent a Deputy to the Court of Rome, to shew the Reasons they have to refuse restoring to the Lutherans the Churches and Ecclesiastical Revenues they took from them, and to desire the Pope to support them therein.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Nov. 8.

Some Advices from Breslau, tell us an Ordinance of the Emperour was come thither, by which the Roman Catholick Clergy were charg'd under rigorous Penalties, to restore without Delay to the Lutherans of Silesia, their Churches, Schools, &c. pursuant to the late Treaty; And that his Imperial Majesty's Commissioners had already Sat upon that Affair.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 12.

Leipzich, Novemb. 5. The 31st past the Commissioners appoited by the Emperour to see the Agreement made about Religion in Silesia with the Swedes put in Execution, had their first Meeting; and adjourn'd for a few Days. The Emperour has writen in pressing Terms to the States of Silesia, to hasten their Assembly, and forward the Execution of the said Agreement.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated November 8.

Paris, Nov. 3. The King to rid his Hands intirely of the War in Piemont, has caus'd an Offer to be made to the D. of Savoy to restore to him all that his Majesty possesses of his, provided he will agree to a Neutrality: His Majesty has likewise caus'd some some other Propositions to be made to the Emperour, for re-establishing Peace and Tranquility throughout all Italy; But the Pope's Ministers, who were employ'd in this Busines, have not been able to work upon the Emperor to agree with them. The King has very much at Heart the Affair of Neufchâtel: And 'tis said his Majesty has sent Order to the Marshal de Villars, to detach forthwith 3 Regiments of Dragoons to the Franche Compte; and that a flying Camp will be form'd out of Hand near Besançon, in Order to the making an Irruption into the Principality of Neufchâtel, in Case it be adjudged to the King of Prussia. 3 Ships are arriv'd at Nantes and at Moclaix, from Vera Cruz in New Spain, very richly laden: In their Passage they were separated by a Storm from 3 other Ships that came out with them, and which 'tis fear'd perish'd.
